From the Pastor...

Dear Friends,

I am sure that every single one of us has had the good fortune of knowing people who have been guides or mentors or examples to us as we have made our way through life. Often we remember especially those who have helped us in our younger years, but God gives us these helpers at every stage of our lives. The word "saint" is a good word for describing these people.

Today I would like to offer thanksgiving for one of the most important saints of my younger years. Her name back then was Carolyn Darr. Officially she was the organist and choir director at Trinity Presbyterian Church, and she was a highly accomplished musician. But since I was a children's choir member of uncertain ability, my dealings with her went well beyond the choir room. Luckily for so many of us, she gave generously of her time, friendship and deep Christian faith to children and teenagers in and beyond the choir. In fact, she continued to offer her time and wisdom to me throughout my years in college and graduate school, and was a treasured sounding board as I made the vocational decisions that shaped my life.

About the time I graduated from high school, Mrs. Darr began a journey back to her roots in the Episcopalian church. First she left Trinity to become choir director at Christ Church in Charlotte. And then a few years later, having been left a youngish widow with no children, she entered holy orders as a nun in the Episcopalian Society of St. Margaret and became known as Sister Carolyn. She eventually served for a time as the mother superior of her order at their convent near Boston.

Last week, Sister Carolyn died full of years – well loved by those who surrounded her in Boston, and fondly remembered by those of us who knew her during her years in Charlotte. Please join me to pay tribute to the life and ministry of Sister Carolyn by taking a moment to remember some of your own saints, and to raise thanksgiving to God for their lives and ministries as well.

Blessings, Elliott
