Church is on:

Facebook and YouTube

Dear Paw Creek,

When I wrote to you in our newsletter two weeks ago, we had just learned the news that our long-time church musician Mark Burleson will be leaving Paw Creek to become the new musician at Soapstone United Methodist Church in Raleigh. This is a great move for Mark and we share his excitement as he looks forward to new challenges, even as we are so sorry to say goodbye.

Now, Mark's last day on July 18 is almost upon us. Our Session committees have come up with several ways to honor Mark and celebrate his ministry. Please have a look at these and plan to join us on the 18th, in person or via live stream. And feel free to share this information with friends and family who may have know Mark over the years - it would be great for them to join us as well!

On July 18th, we will:

Have lots of music from Mark and the choir

Sing hymns together during worship – MASKS ARE REQUIRED during the hymns (not during the rest of the service); please bring a mask, or get one from the ushers

Present Mark with gifts of gratitude - if you wish to participate in a LOVE OFFERING, checks can be made out to the church, and need to arrive in the church office by next Monday, July 12

Present Mark with an offering of cards - there will be a basket in church on the 18th, or you can mail them to the church office with "Mark Burleson" in the corner of the envelope

Share in a wonderful reception after worship in the church parlor

Please come and join the festivities - this will be a day of joy and a day of tears, and all together a day of thanksgiving to the Lord for the gifts of music, of friendship, and of Mark!

Blessings, Elliott
