

An Evening Prayer

If I have wounded any soul today, If I have caused one foot to go astray,
If I have walked in my own willful way, Dear Lord forgive!

If I have uttered idle words or vain, If I have turned aside from want or pain
Lest I myself shall suffer through the strain, Dear Lord, forgive!

If I have been perverse or hard, or cold, If I have longed for shelter in Thy fold,
When Thou hast given me some fort to hold, Dear Lord, forgive!

Forgive the sins I have confessed to Thee; Forgive the secret sins I do not see;
O guide me, love me and my keeper be, Amen.

– Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

This song, “An Evening Prayer”, was sung at the funeral service for Doris’s father, Mr. Angus Cameron, in 1957. The words and music held a special meaning for Doris throughout her life, and she requested that it be sung again for her memorial service today.

* Call to Worship

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth.

Worship the Lord with gladness;

come into his presence with singing.

Know that the Lord is God.

It is he that made us, and we are his;

we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.      – Psalm 100

* Hymn 39

Great is Thy Faithfulness

Prayer of Invocation (in unison)

Eternal God, we bless you for the great company of all those who have kept the faith, finished their race, and who now rest from their labor. We praise you for those dear to us whom we name in our hearts before you. Especially we thank you for Doris, whom you have received into your presence. Help us to believe where we have not seen, trusting you to lead us through our years. Bring us at last with all your saints into the joy of your home; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who taught us, when we pray, to say

Our Father, who art in heaven . . .
